A B C D My Identity Box - Elie Wiesel Nightby Wingrove's Worksheets and MoreThis activity was used for the novel Night by Elie Weisel and was used to explore the theme of identity within the novel. However, this can be adapted for other stories as well. This is a Google Doc assignment and can be used with Google Classroom, Schoology, and other platforms. Night Important Events Graphic Organizerby This is a graphic organizer that the students fill out while reading the novel Night by Elie Wiesel. This can be printed out and made into a packet so that the students have one page to fill out per chapter. This increases engagement and comprehension, and can be used as a great study tool. Encourage the students to write down anything they would deem as important as they are reading (or being read to), as this assists them in reflecting on the story and comprehending the important events in theIntro to Holocaust: Video Questionsby Introduce your students to the Holocaust events with this simple watch-and-answer activity!The YouTube video that is linked on the first page's directions can also be found here: . You can also find it by searching "The Holocaust, Genocides, and Mass Murder of WWII: Crash Course European History #40" on YouTube. The worksheet has 14 questions. 10 are found in the video and the last 4 are for students to brainstorm for themselves. I made this rein teaching students the progression of the Holocaust. I use this before we read the novel Night or The Diary of Anne Frank to help them understand certain language associated with the Holocaust and to help them grasp the true horror of what the Holocaust is.
